1. Introduction

1.1 Purpose

The organization intends to establish a continuous learning environment for all employees thereby encouraging them to undergo Learning & Development (L&D) programs to enhance their domain, technical & behavioural competency.

Policy on L&D serves as a guiding document for all learning interventions at SGA.

1.2 Policy Statement

SGA values the continuous development of all employees in support of our strategy. We aim to put activities in place to ensure everyone is competent in their current role and can respond to changing requirements.

We aim to provide opportunities for longer-term career development where this meets individual and SGA needs.

1. Responsibility for development is shared between individuals, managers, directorates and Human Resource
2. Development opportunities will be accessible to everyone and communicated to all

1.3 Objective

The objectives of institutionalizing the L&D activities are:

1. To ensure that employees are assisted in imbibing skills required to perform their current & future assignments, roles and responsibilities
2. To ensure that all employees are provided relevant development opportunities
3. To enable employees to contribute towards organizational capability building
4. To encourage employees to attain certification(s) and undergo internal as well as external training(s) relevant to their area of work

1.4 Scope

1. The policy is applicable to all SGA employees
2. L&D activities identified for employees will be executed within the scope of available time and resources and in alignment with organization's development objectives

1.5 Equal Opportunity Clause

SGA is committed to the principle of equal opportunity for all employees and to providing employees with a learning environment free of discrimination and harassment. All training decisions at SGA are based on business needs, job requirements and individual qualifications, without regard to race, color, religion or belief, national, social or ethnic origin, sex (including pregnancy), age, physical, mental or sensory disability, HIV Status, sexual orientation, gender identity and/or expression, marital, civil union or domestic partnership status, past or present military service, family medical history or genetic information, family or parental status, or any other status protected by the laws or regulations in the locations where we operate. SGA will not tolerate discrimination or harassment based on any of these characteristics.
